Dear Mr Munn,

Re: Abandoned trailers at Rowland Reserve

There is an increasing number of boat trailers that appear to be abandoned in the trailer parking areas at Rowland Reserve, and some of these trailers have been there for quite some time. Dumped trailers attract more dumped trailers and also attract more vandals, a situation that neither the paying users of the parking facility at Rowland Reserve nor, I'm sure, the Council want and would like to encourage.

- Are the Council rangers reporting these abandoned trailers to Council?
- Has Council a policy for the removal of abandoned trailers at Rowland Reserve? If it has, then why aren't the trailers being removed? If there isn't a policy, then why not?
- Has Council implemented more security patrols at Rowland Reserve?
- Is it possible to track, and fine, the owners?

Surely the parking fees obtained from Rowland Reserve can go towards the removal of abandoned trailers!

Yours sincerely
